

There are four types of sentences.

DEC The declarative sentence makes a statement.

INT The interrogative sentence asks a question.

EXC The exclamatory sentence is a statement that shows strong emotion.

IMP The imperative sentence gives a direction or a command.

Identify the type of sentences listed by labeling them with DEC, INT, EXC or IMP as shown above.

- 1) ____ Please, Mr. Popanopolis! Please stop!
- 2) ____ Stromple knew he shouldn't do it.
- 3) ____ Can you guess what he thought about?
- 4) ____ Please tell the birds and the ants about this happy ending
- 5) ____ He knew throwing a tantrum was wrong, but he was so angry!
- 6) ____ He stopped stomping and looked around.
- 7) ____ Being this far from home alone really scared him.
- 8) ____ Can you guess what Stromple did next?
- 9) ____ Stromple was as mad as ever!
- 10) ____ Clean your room, young man.
- 11) ____ Please, no more tantrums, and please never leave home angry.