Where on earth 🌍 does Stromple live? Where does his tantrum take him?

Setting is where the story takes place. Can you list at least three different places where the book Stromple and the Super-Huge Temper Tantrum takes place?

Now, draw and/or explain your favorite part of the setting tell me why you think it's cool. Things to think about: what might you see there, smell there, hear there, feel there?

If you could step into the setting of the book, where would you go? What would you do?
